Features of Pixelverse (PIXFI)

At the heart of Pixelverse lies its dual-game dynamic, offering twice the excitement and adventure. Dive into the expansive MMORPG, where you can explore a vast cityscape with friends, or switch gears and engage in intense real-time battles against robots in PixelTap. This hybrid approach ensures that there's always something new and exciting to discover, no matter your gaming preference.

But Pixelverse isn't just about the thrill of the game. It's about ownership and true value. In Pixelverse, every weapon, ride, and item you collect is an NFT, meaning you truly own it. Trade your old spaceship for a new one with a fellow player, or sell it for real cash on the open market. This revolutionary feature adds a whole new layer of depth and engagement to the gaming experience, turning your virtual accomplishments into tangible assets.

PIXFI, the game's in-house currency, is the lifeblood of Pixelverse. Use it to buy new gear, upgrade your character or robots, and participate in exclusive events. But the best part? You can earn PIXFI simply by playing and winning in PixelTap. This innovative play-to-earn model incentivizes players to engage with the game and strive for victory, knowing that their efforts will be rewarded with real-world value.

Pixelverse is more than just a game. It's a thriving community of like-minded players, united by a shared passion for gaming and cryptocurrency. Connect with fellow players on our dedicated website, Telegram channel, and YouTube presence, where you can share strategies, forge friendships, and stay up-to-date on the latest news and updates.
