What Are SOON Points and $SOON Tokens?

At TON Station, players earn SOON Points, an in-game currency that can be converted into $SOON tokens—real crypto assets that operate on the TON blockchain. These tokens can be traded, sold, or used across various decentralized applications within the broader TON ecosystem.

Key Highlight: Unlike highly speculative tokens, SOON Points are awarded through engagement-driven activities such as completing daily tasks, participating in team quests, and playing games. This creates a more equitable and sustainable earning model, rooted in user interaction rather than pure speculation.
